WLB CRACKS DOWN ON AKRON STRIKERS

Australians Secure Three Miles of Beach on Borneo

Advance Inland As Resistance Grows Stronger

Attempt To Capture Vital Airfields Needed for Raiding Indies

MANILA, Tuesday, July 3 (AP)—The Seventh Australian division at Balikpapan has secured three miles of beach east of that great Borneo oil port and has driven inland 2,500 yards against stiffening enemy resistance. Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

Hard-fighting Australian infantrymen were within 1,500 yards of ruined Balikpapan today while tanked columns on the right flank plunged swiftly eastward, threatening imminent capture of Sepinggan airstrip, a little over three miles beyond the edge of the town. United States carriers operating with the Seventh fleet were augmenting the continual Allied air attacks against deeply entrenched Japanese positions. Carriers were under the command of Rear Adm. W. D. Sample.

Japs Use Hidden Guns
Heretofore hidden Japanese five-inch guns opened fire upon the beach-head and upon ships in the bay today, joining periodic mortar and anti-aircraft fire which highlighted the increasing enemy resistance. Naval gunfire was believed to have silenced the five-inchers, however, which were located deep in the hills several miles inland.

Australian twenty-five pounders continually blasted enemy positions in dominating ridges eastward from Balikpapan as tempo of the fighting increased. Meanwhile Lt. Gen. Sir Leslie J. Morshead, Australian corps commander, told the Associated Press:

Win Strategic Victory
"The campaign was strategically won in the first few hours on invasion day," when Australians captured vital Permatang ridge on the left flank of the beach-head. Positions atop this heavily-bombed ridge placed Australians within a mile of the Balikpapan central docks and refineries which were totally destroyed by pre-invasion air raids. A Japanese-held ridge separated the Australians from the town itself.

Thick black smoke from oil fires engulfed both armies, spreading an ominous backdrop for the battle scene. The Australians hold more than half of Klandasan, a main residential suburb of Balikpapan. Part of the town lies within the beach-head area, and once-elaborate Dutch residences sprawl along gentle hills running eastward from the beachhead to the peninsula which marks the entrance to Balikpapan bay. Even Dutch army barracks and officers' quarters, has been smashed by bombers and shell-fire.

Additional troops landed Monday on the widening beachhead, to the thunderous welcome of incessant artillery fire and the sound of naval gunfire and bombs dropping by circling carrier planes. Forces driving eastward along the coast toward Sepinggan airstrip moved rapidly along a two-lane dirt road through generally light resistance but met occasional stubborn Japanese pockets. The advance was so swift that capture of the airfield seemed imminent.

River of Burning Oil Protects Borneo Japs

WITH AUSTRALIAN TROOPS AT BALIKAPAPAN, July 2 (AP)—A river of burning oil—a hellish inferno of flame and smoke—made a non-man's-land between Australian and Japanese lines today.

As Australians and a few Americans watched from a white sand ridge which they had seized, a big storage tank a thousand yards away erupted like a violent volcano. A wall of flames 100 feet across leaped spectacularly hundreds of feet skyward.

Allied Gain in Borneo Assures Recapture of Singapore, Sumatra

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press News Analyst

Pending the next major move in the "on to Tokyo" campaign in the North, Australian elements of General MacArthur's fast-expanding ground forces have appeared down Makassar strait to seize the main Borneo oil field at Balikpapan. In so doing the Australians have not only split Japanese forces still lurking in Dutch islands to the east and south from comrades on Sumatra and the Malay peninsula but insured recapture of Singapore and Sumatra when Allied armies of

Attlee Exchanges Caustic Letters With Churchill

BY W. W. HERCHER

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—In an exchange of personal letters virtually on the eve of Thursday's general elections, Prime Minister Churchill asked Labor Party Leader Clement R. Attlee tonight what control the executive committee would exercise over a Labor government and Attlee replied none.

Churchill's letter reiterated his recent suggestion that the twenty-seven-man Executive committee of the opposition party would be made privy to the highest state secrets and called upon the former deputy prime minister in the coalition government to say whether the committee would dictate government foreign policy.

No Curb on Parliament
Attlee said Commons would determine policy under a Labor government and asserted that neither the committee nor its chairman, Prof. Harold Laski, had authority to instruct members of Parliament.

The Laborite, who might be Churchill's successor as prime minister in the event of a labor victory, declared that Churchill's concern over the issue was due to what he termed "his lack of acquaintance with procedures of Democratic parties in general and the Labor party in particular."

Meanwhile Churchill campaigned through London for the city's millions of voters, reiterating his plea for a heavy conservative party majority to give him "the power to speak for Britain" in world councils.

Million Cheer Churchill
Press Association estimated that 1,000,000 Londoners cheered the prime minister who was perched on the rolled-down top of an open car.

Laborite Arthur Greenwood told other Londoners in a campaign speech that Churchill's campaign methods were "those of a dictator" because "he has endeavored to make the election a personal matter, rendering his followers ciphers with no contribution to make to the struggle."

Asks Truman To Define Terms for Surrender

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Minority Leader White (R-Me.) told the Senate today a clear statement by President Truman on what unconditional surrender will mean for Japan may prompt it to give up sooner.

White said his suggestion was made because of "some evidence, slight though it is, of the beginning of a breach in the morale of the Japanese forces."

Speaking in "my personal capacity" rather than as Senate GOP leader, White declared that "neither the American people nor the Japanese people have been informed in any detail what such surrender does entail."

the Southeast Asia command are ready to strike. That may not come for some months. Both the process of British redeployment from Europe and the weather probabilities suggest that it will be fall before the wet monsoon stops blowing in the bay of Bengal to invite large scale amphibious operations from the west as well as from the east against the southern end of the collapsing Japanese conquest zone.

That is what many military observers assume will come in due course to match the capture of

1946 Campaign Issue:

GOP, Stung by New Deal Rejection Of Proposals, May Fight at Polls

CHICAGO, July 2 (AP)—Because Republican-offered proposals for a food "czar" and for changes in the price control act were "rejected" by the Truman administration, the Republican party "may well carry" the food problem as an issue into the 1946 campaign, Herbert Brownell, Jr., said today.

The chairman of the Republican National committee, here for a meeting of national party officers with those of thirteen states, told a press conference his party "gave the Truman administration an opportunity to take our Republican program on production and distribution of food, presented in a very friendly spirit."

"This offer was rejected and the Truman administration has taken on the responsibility. Time will tell whether their program works or whether there will be a continuation of this middle.

"That may well carry into the 1946 campaign," Brownell said his party had shown "constructive leadership" in developing this program and in the work of its representatives at the San Francisco conference. He gave "major credit" to Republicans for changing the Dumbarton Oaks proposal to make the United Nations charter workable.

Asserting that the Republicans' objective is to win control of Congress in 1946, Brownell said "with the successful winning of the war, the intention of the people will be to develop a better domestic economy for every American family, and we believe the Republican party more capable of this than the New Deal program."

FEPC Moneyless And Technically Out of Business

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—The Fair Employment Practices committee finished a dizzy legislative day on Capitol Hill today, right where it started—moneyless and technically out of business.

Within the space of two hours, two attempts of the agency's backers to toss it a financial lifeline were rebuffed by major House committees.

First the Rules committee, by a vote of five to five, refused to approve procedure allowing the House to act on a Senate amendment to the House-passed $771,000,000 war agencies supply measure giving FEPC $250,000.

Table Entire Bill
Shortly thereafter the appropriations committee, by a behind-closed-doors vote reported as 20 to 11, tabled the whole war agencies bill as passed by the Senate and reported out by measure without a penny for FEPC.

The committee's action left FEPC and sixteen home front war agencies on a legislative merry-go-round that threatened to keep whirling long enough to clock House plans for a two-months vacation starting next week.

The FEPC's difficulties do not affect the finances of the other sixteen agencies. Congress took care of their financial needs for the fiscal year that started yesterday by allowing them to spend money in anticipation of the funds they eventually will get when the war agencies measure becomes law.

House Action Today
House action on the new war agencies bill—virtually identical with the bill passed by the House on June 8—is slated for tomorrow.

However, FEPC supporters can block its consideration then and have indicated that they will. The bill finances agencies which have not been created by law and any member may, by a single objection, knock out their funds unless the Rules committee grants a special rule denying such right.

Anticipating such a move by the FEPC's friends, the Appropriations committee has requested a rule which it may not obtain in time for the bill to be considered Tuesday.

Should the committee approve such a rule, FEPC supporters will seek to amend it to permit consideration of money for the agency. The crucial House test will come on that amendment.

Stassen Believes
War Can Be Held
Off for 50 Years

By K. HAROLD OLIVER
MCKINAC ISLAND, Mich., July 2 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen told a news conference today that "we are facing a basic reorientation of our entire foreign policy" and if the United States follows a course of wise world leadership it will be possible to go fifty years without a war.

The former Minnesota governor, who will return to his post as assistant chief of staff to Admiral William F. Halsey in the Pacific soon, spoke to about fifty newsmen before appealing to the governors in a night address to take a more active part in studying and speaking about international affairs.

World Unity Needed
Just back from serving as a delegate to the San Francisco conference, he said the United Nations charter is "an essential step to world co-operation."

"Unless we have a mechanism whereby nations can meet continually, it will be impossible through messages and envoys to work out our social, economic and political problems satisfactorily," he asserted.

He added the charter alone was not sufficient and that the "common bonds of the people of the world in their intense desire for

Truman Stresses Need for Early Vote on Charter

By FRANCIS J. KELLY

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Harry S. Truman came back to the State today to hand his old associates the United Nations charter and ask them to ratify it promptly.

The president spoke with the simple, easy air of a man who felt pretty sure of getting just what he asked for.

"The choice before the Senate is now clear," he said, spacing his words carefully.

Choice Is Plain
"The choice is not between this charter and something else. It is between this charter and no charter at all."

Then, just before ending his seven-minute speech, he re-emphasized that conclusion to the men who have the final say-so on ratification.

"This charter points down the only road of enduring peace," he said. "There is no other."

"Let us not hesitate to join hands with the peace-loving peoples of the earth and stand down that road—with God's help and with firm resolve that we can and will reach our goal."

Victory Seems Assured
There appeared no doubt his request would be granted since an Associated Press poll showed more than two thirds of the Senate members already on record for the world organization.

Shortly before Mr. Truman went to the capital Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) emerging from the executive offices after a call with other legislators, said he had told the president he "couldn't put my finger on as many as six senators who will be against" the charter.

The relatively small Senate chamber was jammed with notables and their friends, including some members of the cabinet. But there were no microphones, no popping flash bulbs, none of the fanfare usual at the president's appearance.

Mr. Truman himself told the occasion called for simplicity. Completely at home in the body where he served ten years, the president smiled wistfully as he addressed the presiding officer, Senator McKellar of Tennessee, with the formal salutation "Mr. President."

Then he quickly got down to business.

Says World Is Watching
He told the Senate that people all over the face of the earth are watching to see if this nation will take the lead in ratifying the document born of nine weeks hard work at San Francisco.

He assured the intently listening senators that the charter carries out completely the Senate's own peace organization aims as embodied in last year's Connally resolution. He asked them to consider the spirit as well as the words of the charter, a bound copy of which lay beside him on a table.

"The objectives of the charter are clear," he declared.

"It seeks to prevent future wars."

Superforts Hit Jap Refinery On Mainland

Drop Explosive Bombs in Sixth Raid in Eight Days on Japan

By LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, Tuesday, July 3 (AP)—About fifty American Superfortresses blasted the Maruzen oil refinery near Shimotsu on Japan's mainland before dawn today, less than twenty-four hours after nearly 600 of the B-29s struck four Nippon cities in the greatest incendiary air raid of history. Only two bombers were lost in the record firebomb mission.

Explosive bombs were used in the Shimotsu attack, the sixth raid in eight days by the Marianas-based B-29s against Japan. Shimotsu is thirty-five miles southwest of Osaka on Honshu island. The target was the third oil plant hit in a week.

The precision demolition attacks are part of a dual bombing campaign now being waged by Maj. Gen. Curtis LeMay's Twenty-first bomber command. They are being alternated with the 500 and 600 plane incendiary strikes.

Targets in the two previous precision attacks included the Utsunomiya oil refinery and the Nippon oil company's plant at Kudamatsu.

The Maruzen installations produce fuel and lubrication oil and aviation gasoline. Many large storage tanks were in the target area.

Superfortress crew men returned from the record incendiary attack said Japanese air and ground fire opposition was insignificant.

Franco's Control Of Tangier To Be Ended by Allies

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—The Allies are about to end Spain's control of Tangier, where Francisco Franco made a grab to dominate the straits of Gibraltar when it seemed that Britain had lost the war.

The plan is to work out a British-French-Spanish agreement for restoring the strategic strength of the Northwest African coast to its former international status, and then tell Franco how it is going to be done.

That is the purpose of conversations in Paris which the State department announced today will get under way immediately. Russia may come into the picture too. The British foreign office said the Soviet Union had asked to be included in the talks and the request is being considered.

Soldier Wife-Slayer
Freed of Murder
Charge in England

NOTTINGHAM, ENGLAND, July 2 (AP)—A British soldier accused of strangling his wife when he returned from overseas and found her bearing another man's baby was acquitted tonight of a murder charge.

"The provocation was such that an ordinary, frail man might have done what he did," the court said in discharging 24-year-old Reginald Keymer. "While her husband was a very excellent man, was overseas fighting she was consorting with other men."

Major Markets To Be Closed Wednesday

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—All major domestic security and commodity markets will be closed Wednesday, July 4, in observance of the Independence Day holiday. Most principal livestock markets also will be shut down.

The Canadian security exchanges and the Winnipeg grain market will be open as usual along with the London stock market.

Three Hefty Men Can't Get Clothes
And Fail To Find Even a Hoghead

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 2 (AP)—There wasn't even a hoghead around to slip on for size so three of Rockford's biggest men were forced today to discard their plans for roles as pickets inside barrels.

The OPA, which they blame for leaving them only well-worn woolens to swelter in this summer, was the target of their proposed demonstration wearing hogheads.

Rolling out in just a barrel would have been a suggestion of indecent exposure to Sheriff Kirk S. King, County Clerk James C. Cannel and Fred Raymer, Hogheads were needed to cloak the expansive forms of King, 295 pounds, Cannel, 260, and Raymer, 350.

But they learned hogheads were as hard to find these days as oversized summer suits, the basis for their complaints.

Eight More Jap Ships Destroyed

GUAM, Tuesday, July 3 (AP)—Search Privaters destroyed eight more Japanese vessels as they ranged from China to Japan in a strangling blockade of enemy shipping lanes, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported today.

Fleet air wing One has destroyed 137,875 tons and damaged 138,400 tons of Japanese shipping in the Okinawa area since it began operations there, the admiral said, as well as destroying thirty-seven enemy planes and damaging twenty-six.

Marine Corsairs ranged again over Kure on Monday, shooting down eight Japanese fighters, while other Okinawa-based tactical air force planes struck again at the Sakishima islands off Formosa.

Included in fleet air wing One's newest kills were a small oiler and three small cargo ships left burning and sinking in Tsushima straits, a small river steamer sunk in Hangchow bay, and a destroyer escort damaged off Shanghai.

Baltimore & Ohio Offers Financial Adjustment Plan

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—A financial adjustment plan for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company which said it was in process of reorganization under the bankruptcy act was submitted to the federal court today and will be acted upon July 10 by a three-judge court.

The plan would affect about $500,000,000 of the total railroad system debts of about $571,000,000.

Seeks Court Approval
The railroad, through its attorneys, said it had been unable to meet its matured debts and those about to mature and sought approval by a special court of its adjustment plan, dated Sept. 20, 1944 and previously approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Under the plan, collateral trust bonds would be issued for sale and the proceeds applied to payment of the matured notes. It would also provide for the issue of new bonds to be exchanged for certain bonds now outstanding or pledged, the petition said.

Notes Held by RFC
The company cited specifically notes for $84,563,276 held by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which had matured and were not met. It said the RFC had agreed to a plan for refunding those notes through the sale by the company of collateral trust bonds maturing Jan. 1, 1965 which the RFC agreed to purchase, subject to ICC approval.

The petition said the adjustment plan contemplated that the principal amounts of security for all existing obligations of the company would remain unchanged.

Eleven Men Killed In Bomber Crash

LAS VEGAS, Nev., July 2 (AP)—Eleven members of the air forces stationed here were killed and two seriously injured Saturday as a heavy bomber crashed and burned on a gunnery school training flight, the army announced today.

The bomber crashed a half mile north of the field.

Yanks Tighten Lines on Luzon

MANILA, Tuesday, July 3 (AP)—American troops and Philippine guerrillas tightened their lines around Japanese remnants cut off in the Cordillera mountains northeast of the summer capital of Baguio in the Northern Luzon, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communiqué reported today.

Farther east, other American forces knocked out four enemy tanks and captured a number of vehicles as they chased Japanese troops—beaten in the battle of the Cagayan valley—deeper into the foothills of the Sierra Madras.

The screws also were being tightened on the Southern Philippines island of Mindanao, where the fleeing Japanese were encircled around the village of Waloe.

The Japanese were expected to try to regroup their tired and beaten forces in this area in the wild Agusan river valley of Eastern Mindanao. Guerrillas pushed within less than a mile of Waloe without stirring up a fight.

10 More Jap Ships Sunk by U. S. Subs

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—United States submarines have sunk ten more Japanese vessels, bringing their total bag to 1,163 the navy disclosed today.

The ten were a converted gunboat, a patrol escort vessel, four medium merchant vessels, a large tanker, two small merchant vessels and a small tanker.

The navy also announced that a British submarine sank a cruiser of the Haguro class in the Southwest Pacific. The submarine, reported to be the HMS Trenchant, was operating under United States control.

The Haguro type is of 10,000 tons with 692 men aboard. Total sinkings by United States submarines include 140 combatant and 1,023 non-combatant ships.

Thundershowers End
Heat Wave in State

[By The Associated Press]
The intense heat wave and the series of scattered thundershowers last (Monday) night which appeared to have broken it finally, took a toll of nearly a dozen casualties.

Three deaths by drowning, two from lightning bolts and one from heat prostration were reported over the shimmering weekend. Five others were injured by lightning flashes, one critically.

Without confirmation elsewhere, the Tokyo radio said that "about 100 American - directed Chinese troops" attacked the port of Amoy opposite Formosa but the "adventure failed."

American Advance Units in Berlin
To Arrange for Arrival of Troops

PARIS, July 2 (AP)—Advance units of American occupation forces have entered Berlin to set up communication facilities and arrange billeting for the veterans of World War II scheduled to march into the German capital tomorrow, it was disclosed tonight.

Supreme headquarters revealed that a mobile radio transmitter was sent ahead with an advance party of troops, and Press Wireless, Inc., announced in New York that the station had been set up in Berlin.

Workers Lose Shift Premiums And Vacations

Many Men Are Expected To Be Called for Military Duty

[By The Associated Press]
Unprecedented disciplinary action was invoked by the War Labor Board yesterday (Monday) against one of the largest groups of strikers among the 54,000 idle over the nation.

With some 33,000 persons away from their jobs in the big rubber capital of Akron, O., the WLB suspended shift premium and vacation provisions of its April 3 directive for 16,700 workers on strike at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company since June 16.

The board also ordered 17,000 Firestone Tire and Rubber Company strikers in Akron to resume production of their vital war output.

Newspaper Strike Continues
Striking delivermen for eleven New York city newspapers also were ordered to end their crippling walk-out but a union official indicated the WLB directive would be ignored.

A nearly complete return to work was accomplished in the glass industry strike, only two of eleven plants reporting continuance of the strike.

The WLB in suspending shift premium and vacation provisions for striking CIO United Rubber Workers at the Goodyear Company also called on union officials to end a walkout of 17,000 which began Sunday at Firestone Tire and Rubber Company over contract negotiations.

Earlier the WLB ordered cancellation of occupational deferments for Goodyear strikers registered for the military draft.

Order End of N. Y. Strike
With delivery of eleven New York city newspapers paralyzed since Saturday, the WLB ordered striking delivermen to return to work (Tuesday) morning or explain to the board tomorrow.

Japan To Remove Many Civilians From Singapore

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2 (AP)—The Japanese announced plans today to evacuate civilians from Singapore as Allied power to the east of Borneo rolled up dangerously close to the great naval base.

The Japanese - controlled Java radio said non-essential civilians would begin clearing out of Singapore the middle of July.

"The Allies already control three air bases in Singapore, little more than 700 miles from Singapore, and now Australians are moving down Borneo's west coast toward Kuching air base—400 miles from Singapore."

Predicts Homeland Battle
The Tokyo radio in another broadcast heard by the Federal Communications Commission declared that "the curtain is about to be raised on the homeland battle" and reiterated that "both men and women, young and old" would join in a suicidal defense for an "ultimate victory."

It asserted that new and improved suicide planes would attack the invasion fleet and "if the enemy manages to barely reach the shores, our air force and surface special-attack corps will attack him in body-crushing action."

And if the invaders get ashore, the broadcast added, "our army forces will thoroughly smash him with body-crushing tactics also."

Japs "Permit" Raids
Admitting damage was spreading in cities hit by the Superfortresses, Tokyo continued: "We are permitting the enemy to raid us with his B-29s and B-51s while we are striving to make even one more extra plane."

Without confirmation elsewhere, the Tokyo radio said that "about 100 American - directed Chinese troops" attacked the port of Amoy opposite Formosa but the "adventure failed."

PARIS, July 2 (AP)—Advance units of American occupation forces have entered Berlin to set up communication facilities and arrange billeting for the veterans of World War II scheduled to march into the German capital tomorrow, it was disclosed tonight.

Supreme headquarters revealed that a mobile radio transmitter was sent ahead with an advance party of troops, and Press Wireless, Inc., announced in New York that the station had been set up in Berlin.

ShAEF said the advance party had been sent ahead to arrange billeting for the main body of troops.

The mobile transmitter will handle the file of some 200 Allied correspondents who are due to enter the city with main American, British, Canadian and French forces tomorrow and Wednesday.

Former Employee Of Meat Dealer Confesses Fraud

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—Trial of a Kansas City meat packer and a Baltimore wholesaler accused of a two-year black market conspiracy in meat was adjourned until tomorrow after one of the Baltimorean's former employees testified today that he, himself, had recorded $41,000 in overcharges over a three-month period.

Defendants in the case, being tried by jury in United States District Court, are Sam Simon and his sons, Albert and Melvin Simon, operators of the United States Packing Company, Inc., of Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., and Jacob Spevak, trading as Spevak and Company, Baltimore.

Indicted last April, they were charged with conspiring to violate the national emergency price control act since Feb. 1, 1943 by buying and receiving beef and lamb at inflated prices and by keeping false records. All pleaded innocent.

The first government witness, Moe Goldberg, former packing and shipping manager for Spevak and named in the action as a co-conspirator but not indicted, testified to keeping records of invoice prices and those agreed upon by Simon and Spevak.

He said he was supposed to compute the differentials and during March, April and May of 1943, recorded $41, in overcharges. He admitted that he had been given immunity by the OPA by being willing to testify for the government. Goldberg said he left Spevak's employ last January.

Stipulations were introduced by Thomas Kenney, assistant United States attorney, to the effect that from March 15 to August 20, 1943, the Simons shipped 1,979,163 pounds of meat to Spevak for which the latter paid $438,610.92, and excess of $90,100.33 over the invoice price.

In his opening statement, the government's representative said the packer and the wholesaler violated price ceilings by shipping quarantined beef and involving it as "fabricated cuts" which command higher prices.

Kenney said the government would prove Spevak agreed to pay the Simons from one to six cents over the ceiling prices; that invoices were falsified as to the type of meat being shipped and that Spevak offered preliminary payments totaling about $30,000 even before any meat was shipped.

A contention that the cutting charges were legitimate and amounted to no more than $6,000 or $7,000 was made by Attorney William Curran for the Kansas City firm, who declared there "was absolutely no credible evidence that there were any cash 'on-the-side' payments."

Mother Jailed For Neglecting Two Children

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—One Baltimore mother was given a jail sentence today on charges of neglecting her children, while another mother was held under $1,000 bail on charges of aiding in burning her little boy with cigars.

Mrs. Wilda Webb, mother of four children, was sentenced to six months in the state reformatory for females after she was convicted in the division of juvenile causes of neglecting two of her youngest children, aged 2 and 6.

Meanwhile, the grand jury returned presentments against Mrs. Carl Schauermann and Carl B. Sadler accusing them of assaulting by burning with cigars Mrs. Schauermann's 4-year-old son, Walter. Bail for the two was set at $1,000 each.

Negroes Ask Truman To Impeach Two Mississippi Senators

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—The Maryland conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has written President Truman asking for the impeachment of two Mississippi senators for "disgraceful" attacks on negro soldiers.

The message said that Senators James O. Eastland and Theodore G. Bilbo, during filibustering speeches to delay action on the Fair Employment Practices Commission appointment, attacked the negro soldiers and other religious and racial minorities.

Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore branch and the state conference, referred to the senators' attack as "undemocratic and un-American."

Senate Pays High Tribute to Byrnes

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—The Senate today paid James F. Byrnes the tribute of confirmation as secretary of state without hearings, without debate and without dissent.

The nomination arrived from the White House at 12 noon, and in less than a half hour approval was granted.

This was one way the Senate—Republicans along with Democrats—chose to illustrate their confidence in the South Carolinian who served in the House, in the Senate as associate justice of the supreme court and as war mobilization director.

The unanimous confirmation made Byrnes next in line of succession for the presidency if Mr. Truman should not complete his term.

Demolition Unit Protecting Chicago

CHICAGO, July 2 (AP)—An army-instructed demolition unit made up of sixteen city detectives went into operation today to protect civilians from grenades, shells, bombs, mines and other "live" explosives sent home by GIs as war souvenirs.

Detective Chief Walter G. Storms said several deaths believed caused by "dud" shells prompted organization of the new unit.

Fifty-one Boys Go to Cliffside

The second season of the Camp Cliffside summer camp for boys has opened on the South Branch near Springfield, W. Va., with fifty-one youngsters entering camp on the opening day. As usual on the initial day the boys gave every piece of equipment and every game a thorough workout.

Organized activities got under way Monday morning with softball and basketball leagues being started for younger and older boys. The program of special events for each week will include a hike, mystery trip and movies, track and swimming meets, ping pong, horseshoe and tetherball tournaments and a marble championships. Swimming is one of the most popular activities with the water clear and warm and the beginners have already made considerable progress in learning to swim. The boys in camp for the first week are:

Cabin 1, Jimmy Hughes, Leader, Billy Malump, Bobby Mann, Ronnie Simons, Robert Duff, Jerry Liden, Carl Slemmer and Louis Spoerl.

Cabin 2, John Adams, Leader, Jimmy Lemmert, Warner Deeneen, Billy Greer, Dennison Norris, Carl Winfield, Billy Adams and Gene Athey.

Cabin 3, Jimmy York, Leader, Freddie Norton, Duke Hartley, Frederick Glaze III, Whyllie M. Paw III, John Haws and Don Upchurch.

Cabin 4, Yates Borden, Leader, Jimmy Stump, Creed Greer, Franklin Pharis, Joe Murray, Gordon Murray, John York and John Shupe.

Cabin 5, Bud York, Leader, Don Scott, Richard Scott, Gene Watch, Jack Hanson, Billy Lemmert, Stanley Fulton and Ramsey Tobias.

Cabin 6, John Stump, Leader, Demos Carros, Dick Athey, Bert Cook, Fred Bernard, Bernard Blake and E. J. Messersmith.

Cabin 7, Douglas York, Leader, Tom Williams, Stuart Williams, Joe Panacke, John Panacke, Rannells Hill, Edwin Mason, David Mason, Stanley Harris, Teddy Judy and Lewis Judy.

Fail To Agree On Mine Problem

By DON SANDERS

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—Congressmen for four soft coal-producing states failed to reach agreement with government officials today on how to solve manpower and price problems of the industry.

Confronted with War department opposition to their proposal that men be released by the army to work in mines, an informal Congressional committee arranged to continue talks tomorrow with top government officials.

Wife of Wounded Marine Receives Purple Heart

A Purple Heart medal, awarded Pfc. John Longbeam, who was wounded on Okinawa, June 3, was received yesterday from the commanding officer of a base hospital in the Pacific war zone by his wife, Mrs. Catherine E. Longbeam, 104 Gleason street.

Pfc. Longbeam, a former Celanese employee, served with the Sixth Marine Division. He entered the service September 3, 1943, and sailed overseas July 30, 1944.

Sixteen Inducted From Board No. 2

Sixteen registrants of Local Board No. 2 were inducted into the armed forces Saturday, and all but two of them were sworn into the army, according to board officials.

Those assigned to the army are Leo Henry Keyser, 504 Kingsley place; Thomas Aloysius Geitz, 177 North Mechanic street; Milton Urrer Norris, III, 302 Park street; Boyce Junior Bradford, 509 Shriver avenue; Paul Wilmer Rank, 400 Pur-nance street; William Cecil Hillegas, Valley road.

Richard Carl Dickerhoof, 445 Goethe street; Gordon Ray Slonaker, 443 North Waverly terrace; Karl Frederick Muller, 186 North Centre street; Paul Romf Rudolph, 614 Baltimore avenue; George Henry Moody, 435 Columbia street; James Ronald Payne, 216 Glenn street; Edward Kenneth Ritter, 800 Holland street; and Richard Ralph Bruemker, 506 Dilley street.

Joseph C. Moore, 816 Niagara street, was assigned to the navy and was sent to Bainbridge; and Charles William Brant, Bedford road, was assigned to the marine corps at Parris Island, S. C.

With the exception of Moore, Brant and Keyser, the group was comprised of 18-year-old youths.

Carol and Lupescu To Visit Lisbon

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 2 (AP)—A reliable informant said today that former King Carol of Romania and Elean Lupescu would sail about July 14 on the Portuguese liner Serpa Pinto for Lisbon. The couple returned recently from the Brazilian state of Petropolis, in mountains northeast of Rio de Janeiro.

Woman Badly Cut In Tavern Clash

BALTIMORE, July 2 (AP)—It required fifty-seven stitches to close gashes in Anna Kazee's face after an argument which resulted when she spilled a glass of beer in a Baltimore tavern last night. Today Ina Madrick, who slashed Miss Kazee with a penknife, was sentenced in police court to six months in prison.

Postal Rates Remain

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—President Truman has signed legislation continuing the present first class postal rates, the White House announced today. Without the legislation the three cent rate on out-of-town letters would have reverted to two cents.

"It seeks to remove the economic and social causes of international conflict and unrest."

Bill Ending Sanitation Job Rejected by Council

Members of the city council did not second the resolution introduced yesterday by Commissioner William E. McDonald abolishing the position of assistant sanitary inspector.

McDonald stated that the assistant inspector is not needed and that the job is an extra burden on taxpayers.

William R. E. King was named temporary assistant inspector by the council and, along with J. Grant MacFarlane, qualified under civil service regulations for permanent appointment.

McDonald's resolution states that the mayor and council authorized the additional office upon the request of Dr. Winter R. Frantz, acting health officer, acting without investigation or upon full information of the duties and conditions involved.

Former Resident Joins Baltimore City Staff

Dr. David Rees, a former resident of Cumberland, has completed his hospital, and will become a resident intern at the Altoona, Pa. hospital at Baltimore City hospital, serving in the department of obstetrics, beginning July 1.

Employed in the office of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company for four years, Dr. Rees is a graduate of Potomac State school. He attended West Virginia university, where he worked on his B. A. and M. Sc. degrees and served as instructor of physiology.

He was granted a Fellowship at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O. and worked on his doctorate of Philosophy at Ohio State university, Columbus, O. Dr. Rees was graduated from the School of Medicine of the University of Maryland in 1944.

Yank Finds Way To Rule Natives

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP)—An exasperated corporal in New Guinea really put teeth into his dealings with the natives.

The natives refused to take seriously their work for the quarter-master corps. The corporal had tried every way he knew to speed them up and then, in a burst of words, his false teeth popped out.

"The incident," the army gravely reported, "caused great concern among the natives. From then on, the corporal was looked upon with respect and awe, and his orders were obeyed with alacrity."

Disabled Veterans Buy Murphy Home

Purchase of the two-story brick dwelling at 113 South Centre street from Miss Mary I. Murphy, retired Allegheny high school teacher, was announced yesterday by Fort Washington Chapter No. 2, Disabled American Veterans.

The building will be remodeled and will become the new home of the chapter which now occupies the third floor of 117 Baltimore street.

The South Centre street building has a large basement and eight rooms on the first and second floors. The purchase price is reported to be $11,000.

Fort Washington Chapter has fifty members.

Charlotte Man Jailed In Default of Fine

Charged with driving on a chauffeur's license which had expired, Duncan Douglas Pate, Charlotte, N. C., was committed to the county jail for six days in default of a fine and costs totalling $5.75 after a hearing before Magistrate Frank A. Perdue in trial magistrate's court yesterday.

Pate was arrested Sunday evening at the intersection of Park street and Central avenue by State Trooper Glen D. Folk after the car he was driving collided with a car driven by Fireman First Class Lloyd F. Davis, Cresapton.

Mrs. Jane L. Carpent, 314 Washington street, who was riding with Pate, was treated in Allegheny hospital for a deep laceration on the side of the chin suffered in the crash.

Slatten Believes

peace will decide the issue of peace or war.

Position on Wars

"I do not feel that war is inevitable," he declared. "But that doesn't mean that we might not always have policing activity."

In response to a question, Commander Slatten said he still felt that from a Republican or party standpoint it was a political liability for him to accept membership on the American delegation to San Francisco from a president of the opposing party. But he said he wanted to reemphasize that he accepted the appointment because of the great obligation he felt and that he would accept again.

32 Stray Dogs Are Caught by Landaker

Thirty-two stray dogs were captured last week by special officer William Landaker, who worked only a few hours each evening, mostly in the South End, Mayor Thomas S. Post announced Saturday.

Landaker is being paid $1 per dog and turns them over to F. B. McCallum, human officer. Landaker reported that he has been bitten once. Owners of the dogs have twenty-four hours to reclaim the animals and must pay a twenty-five cent fee. Mayor Post has proposed raising the fee to at least $1.

The mayor said the city is trying to do something about rounding up stray dogs, but that it does not have the power to issue dog licenses. He suggested that the county, which does have the power to license the animals, should take a greater interest in capturing the stray dogs.

Carnival Worker Held On Draft Law Charges

Michael Charles Kulka, 34, itinerant carnival worker, is being held in the county jail for removal to Rochester, N. Y., to face charges of violating the Selective Service Act by failing to notify his local board of a change of address.

Kulka, arrested by an FBI agent and Trooper A. M. Spioch at the Kirkwood Shows last week in McCoolle, registered in Lockport, N. Y., in 1940. Since 1941 the board has not known of his address. In 1943 he was indicted at Rochester, N. Y., by a federal grand jury.

The carnival worker received a removal hearing before United States Commissioner Wilbur V. Wilson Saturday and will be taken to Rochester this week.

Dealers Must Register To Sell Tires by July 10

After July 10 dealers may not sell tires unless they are registered with the OPA, according to local War Price and Rationing board officials. The new regulations are an attempt to stop illegal sales and transfers and to conserve the available supply.

Dealers must register on or before July 10, reporting their June 30 inventory of tires and Parts B of the tire rationing certificates. Those failing to register by then will be prohibited from engaging in the tire business until they have registered.

Registration forms may be obtained at the local board office.

B'nai B'rith Will Install Officers

B'nai B'rith will have a dinner meeting at the All Ghan Shrine Country Club Thursday at 6:15 p. m. at which time new officers will be installed by Jesse Fine, Baltimore, president of District No. 5, which includes Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Fine is a graduate of Baltimore City college and the University of Maryland Law School, and has practiced law in Baltimore since 1918, and has been connected with all membership campaigns of the Baltimore B'nai B'rith chapter for the last twelve years. He was the first president of the Maryland District of Columbia Association of B'nai B'rith.

Other out-of-town guests expected to be present are C. Howard Brown, Bladensburg, president of the Maryland and District of Columbia Association, and Mrs. Julius Fisher, Roanoke, Va., secretary of District 5.

Adolph Hirsch will be toastmaster at the dinner. The committee in charge is composed of Hirsch, chairman; Herman Berres, Dr. Harry Pinsky, Tobias Lazarus and Frank H. Kaplan.

Officers to be installed are: Julius E. Schindler, president; Myer Abramson, first vice president; Aaron Lazarus, second vice president; Frank H. Kaplan, corresponding secretary; Robert Gerson, financial secretary; George Ossip, treasurer; Maurice Friedland, first monitor; William B. Schindler, second monitor; Harry Stein, warden; Samuel W. Kaplan, guardian; Alexander Green, Joseph Klawin and Max Spear, trustees.

State Guard Units Will Get Summer Equipment

Members of Company C, of the Maryland State Guard, will report at the state armory tonight at 7:30 p. m., at which time summer equipment will be distributed in preparation for the annual encampment which will get under way July 22 at Fort George G. Meade. Winter equipment will be turned in at this meeting.

Company D will receive summer equipment at a meeting to be held Friday night at the armory.

There will be no drill on Wednesday due to observance of the holiday.

City Sends Ninety Carloads of Paper To Mills in Year

Ninety carloads of wastepaper have been dispatched from Cumberland to mills of high priority in the past year, according to W. Donald Smith, chairman of the local salvage committee.

In a report issued by Emmett A. Dougherty, collector, it was shown that he inaugurated monthly house-to-house collections on June 28, 1944 and over a period of twelve months the amount of wastepaper picked up from homes as well as commercial establishments has been moved by rail in ninety box cars. Most of the paper has been sent to the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company mill in Covington, Va., while magazines and the better grade of ledger paper has been dispatched to the same firm's mill at Lake, Md.

The fifty-five tons of paper collected in Cumberland and vicinity last week represents an all-time high for a five-day canvass. The previous high was forty-two tons. The record was established just one year after the monthly collections were launched.

Smith said he has been advised by Capt. Thomas Simon, commanding officer of the German prisoners of war camp at Flintstone that several truckloads of paper collected at the camp will be turned over to the city this week. Capt. Simon also stated that a large quantity of used tin cans will be available when the next collection is conducted by the city.

Pfc. Harry L. Nines Is Home on Furlough

Pfc. Harry L. Nines, who suffered a leg injury on Two Jima last February, arrived here to spend a twenty-day convalescent furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Nines, 1314 Virginia avenue.

Pvt. Nines who has been receiving treatment at Bainbridge Naval Training Center hospital, entered service in November, 1943. He is a graduate of Port Hill high school and was employed by the B. and O. as a brakeman.

Barrelville Youth Gets Two Citations

Two deeds of personal daring by Pfc. Russell C. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, Barrelville, earned for him in the final months of the war against Germany, a bronze star medal and an Oak leaf cluster.

The citation for the first feat of courage, signed by Major Gen. A. R. Bolling, commanding the 84th Infantry Division, describes how young Morgan, as a member of a 10 man reconnoitering patrol which was to infiltrate enemy lines in advance of his attacking company last February, captured 39 prisoners and returned to his company with invaluable information concerning enemy strength and positions.

On April 8, Pfc. Morgan, on another advance reconnoitering assignment, crawled across open terrain exposed to enemy fire and outflanked a German automatic rifleman who was firing on him, diverting his attention so that the American patrol leader was enabled to shoot and kill him, thereby enabling the group to complete its mission. The citation, also signed by Gen. Bolling, says that "the cool courage, aggressiveness and determined spirit displayed by Pfc. Morgan reflect high credit upon himself and the military service of the U. S."

COMMISSIONERS NAMED IN SUIT

Alban C. Thompson, tax collector for the first district from 1939 to 1942, filed a petition in circuit court Saturday against S. W. Green, chairman, James Holmes and C. N. Wilkinson, Jr., members of the Allegany county board of commissioners. He asks a court order to rescind a property on the north side of Waverly terrace.

Thompson said that taxes for the year 1941 and 1942 were in default and the property, owned by Helen P. and Ida B. McKee, was sold at public auction October 8, 1943. The county commissioners bid $227, which was accepted. The sale, Thompson said, was ratified by the court but the commissioners refused to pay for it.

Chief Judge William A. Huster issued an order for the board to show cause on or before July 16 why the collector should not be authorized to re-advertise and re-sell the property.

Mrs. Zelma J. Courtney, Cumberland, filed suit for divorce from Lester E. Courtney.

Robert L. Martin, Cumberland, filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Virginia Lee Martin, California. Their children are aged 12 and 9.

Few Licenses Issued As New Year Starts

The new general privilege license year officially started July 1, with but 250 of the contemplated 1000 licenses issued, according to Samuel E. Griminger, city clerk.

Part of the delay, he said, is due to a discussion in the city council concerning the possibility of raising some of the fees. No action was taken.

Granting licenses will continue July and August and, in the past, the work has not been completed until early October when the police make a final check-up.

Victor Jones, Elder street, received a suspended sentence of four months in the county jail on condition that he refrain from the use of intoxicants and abusing his wife. Mrs. Juanita Leasure was found not guilty of taking a rocking chair from a home of a west side woman when moving to a new address.

LISTEN WORLD!

—By Elsie Robinson

(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

"FOR YOUR OWN GOOD, DEARIE"

I dislike quite a variety of humans. But my pet detestation is the mad or lass who comes uninvited and proceeds to spill a bunch of most unwelcome facts under the pretense that "it's all for your own good, dearie!"

The heck it is! How do they know? The answer is—they don't! No one on earth knows what street serves the Other Fellow's best good. A few of us—a very few—are melowered by bad news. But the great majority of us aren't. Unhappiness not only makes us sour but it humiliates us deeply when broadcast by a supposed friend. And there is no greater impertinence than for one human to sit in judgment on another and decide which particular dish he needs.

As a matter of fact, few such tale bearers are well-wishers. They have no desire to spare their victim pain or arm him against shock or loss. They are simply out to gain the much desired spotlight for themselves and raise a little hell on the side.

Malicious gossip never operates for anyone's "best good." It merely spreads fear, hurt and hate. And the person who passes it on should rank socially with rattlesnakes and other toxic tricksters.

"But suppose they are really telling the truth and are honestly anxious about its effect on their friend?" you protest.

Very well, suppose they are. Be they friend or enemy the same ancient rule applies to all of them—mind your own business.

If there's bad luck brewing, the longer we can defer its arrival the better. Sooner or later, venom will out. But why rush it? Ignorance often proves to be bliss—if the Gaby Bystander keeps both nose and lip out of an unpleasant mess which in no way concerns him.

"But maybe it's really important," you still argue. "Suppose I know that a married man is cheating on his wife?" or "that an April bride is stepping while her husband is overseas?" or "that a certain young fellow is playing the races with the firm's funds?"

Well, what of it? We all know disagreeable and dangerous things. But that doesn't give us the right to pass them on.

Time is the great physician. Countless homes could be saved and endless hearts rescued from the breaking if we would give time a chance to work its healing magic.

We have all done things in the heat of anger which we would never have dreamed of doing had we spent a night in thought and measured meditation. That's where a meddlesome tongue becomes Public Enemy No. 1.

Moreover, before you embark upon a tattletale's career, remember this—not only are you unable to judge what's best for the other fellow but you are also unable to foresee his reaction. Even though you have known each other since mud pie days, you still are strangers. Even blood kin must bow to this strangeness.

No two people on earth think or feel alike or react in the same tempo. In the intimate affairs of life, each human being must be his own judge and jury for he alone knows the rules under which his own soul functions.

So there's just one answer to that teasing temptation to tell "something for your own good, dearie," and that answer is don't. Each man must rule his own solitary empire. Even God keeps hands off.

Hospital Board To Honor Morris Rosenbaum Tonight

Birthdays of William Gunter, Mr. Rosenbaum Will Be Observed

The usual joint birthday celebration for Morris Rosenbaum and William A. Gunter will be held in conjunction with the testimonial dinner to be given in honor of Mr. Rosenbaum at 6:30 o'clock this evening at the Cumberland Country Club.

Members of the board of governors of Memorial hospital are honoring Mr. Rosenbaum this evening upon his retirement after serving twenty-years. Having been a member of the board since it was organized in 1924, Mr. Rosenbaum is retiring because of the age provision in the charter. Mr. Rosenbaum, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rosenbaum, was born in Cumberland and Mr. Gunter, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gunter, was born in Prossburg.

Mr. Gunter will preside at the dinner and call for impromptu talks. The guest list will be limited to the directors, George G. Young, a former director and Benjamin Wright, superintendent of the hospital and Mrs. Wright. Covers will be laid for approximately nineteen guests.

Marriage Is Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Roma Mae Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Foley, Green Spring, W. Va., to Isaac Creed McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, also of Green Spring.

The ceremony was performed June 21, in the First Methodist church with the Rev. George E. Baughman officiating.

Sunday School Picnic Will Be Held Today

The Bethany United Brethren Sunday school will hold its annual picnic tomorrow at Smouses Beach. Members will meet at the church and leave in a group at 11 o'clock.

Games for the different age groups will feature the program, and will close with a campfire and devotional service conducted by the Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Welch. Ball games and horse-shoe pitching will be held for the men under the chairmanship of John S. Cook and Jesse Weaver. The women and young people's group will be under the direction of Mrs. John S. Cook, and Mrs. Edward Shaffer. Mrs. Ralph Isminger and Mrs. Edward Shumaker will be in charge of the children's group.

4-H Girls Hold Eighteenth Annual Educational Camp

Miss Margaret T. Loar, assistant home demonstration agent, announces that the Girls 4-H camp this year had its largest enrollment since Allegheny county held its first camp in 1926. There were 136 girls and leaders at the camp, which was built for 4-H Girls and Boys of Maryland by the federal government and leased to the University of Maryland for ninety-nine years. The camp, situated in Garrett county, can only be used for educational purposes.

Used by 4-H club members from Allegheny and Washington counties the campsite is called Allegaw, using the first two letters of each county. Last week's camp completed eighteen years of regular camping. In 1937 thirteen day camps were held in place of the regular camp.

The theme of the camp was "Nature and Home Management," and each cabin was given a name pertaining to nature. The first unit was named for trees with Donna Zembower counselor for the Chestnut cabin; Jean Yeargan, for Pine tree and Rosemary Iliff, for Maple. Unit two had Jean Gardner as counselor for the Robin cabin; Marion Valentine, Blue Bird; and Edna McFarlane, Woodpecker.

Margaret Shaffer was counselor for Moose cabin in the animal group. Lillian Fleagle and Max Lou Kilduff, for Deer and Joyce Johnson, handy boy, for Wolf cabin. Mrs. C. E. Whitehead was counselor for Buttercup cabin in unit four; Mrs. Richard Aaron, for Forget-me-nots, and Mrs. John Johnston for Black-eyed Susans cabin.

Other members of the camp staff included on the teaching staff, Miss Helen Irene Smith, home management classes which included camp cooking and fireplaces, "Being Liked by Our Friends," "Are You Safety Conscious?" "Catalog Buying," "How To Make Checks, money orders and personal accounts," "Entertaining Children," with child care and boys, "Musical Records," "Story Books," "Making Dish Washing Pleasant" and "Making the Kitchen Useful and Attractive."

Swimming instructors, Mrs. Whitehead, assisted by Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Aaron; music, Miss Smith; nature, Harry Dengler and Marion Valentine; dining room hostesses, Edna McFarlane and Marion Valentine; camp nurse, Mrs. Katherine Ralston; dietitian, Miss Loar; camp cooks, Mrs. A. D. Lechler, Mrs. Edward Lewis and Mrs. Charles Eckhart; vesper instructor, Miss Maude A. Bean; camp ground inspector, Marjorie Twigg and Laccoca Tewell; camp log historian, Mary Lou Kilduff; bulletin board chairman, Joan Malampy, and lounge hostess, Mary Alice Miltenberger.

Camp schedule beginning at 7 o'clock included a flag raising ceremony, conference, inspection, assembly and class periods in the morning; rest hour, class period, swimming and cabin meetings in preparation for the evening program. After dinner the vesper service and programs were held.

Night programs were "Music by Cabins," on June 22; party and folk dances, June 23; vesper and song service, Sunday; a musical program was given by the girls and leaders who attended the leaders training course, under the chairmanship of Margaret Robinson, Monday night.

Betty Robertson served as announcer for the radio program Tuesday evening with cabin 1 giving the Hit Parade; Cabin 2, Bob Hope; Cabin 3 Song Festival; Cabin 4, Robin Trio; Cabin 5, Bluebird dance; Cabin 6, Tiltin Fleagle; Cabin 7, Quiz program; Cabin 8, "Peanuts or Nothing," (Take It or Leave It) Cabin 10, Variety Show; Cabin 11, Intersanctum Mystery; Cabin 12, Walter Winchell's Predictions and Cabin 9 Bed Time story.

Roberta Wilson served as toastmaster for the annual camp banquet Wednesday evening, when a musical program was given and bird songs recorded and pictures and 4-H pictures shown. Dora Zembower and Leah Drake were chairmen for the reception Thursday evening, when all campers represented a notable personality and Jean Gardner impersonated Margaret Truman.

A pageant featured the Friday night campfire program, which was followed by a candlelighting service. Patricia Brinkman, Joan Sweeney, Lucille Aaron and Shirley Hendrickson represented the four H's.

There were forty-seven 4-H leaders and older club girls attending the leadership training course, conducted by Miss Smith, state extension home management specialist, and Harry Dengler, state extension for-ester.

Events in Brief

Local Couple Are Married At Home of Bride's Aunt

William Fair Weds Miss Violet V. Hook in Ceremony Here

Miss Violet V. Hook, daughter of Harry Hook, 215 Emily street, became the bride of William Fair, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fair, 317 Columbia street, Sunday.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Owen Rhodes, aunt of the bride, Cemetery road, Westport, with the Rev. William B. Ordoroff officiating. Mrs. Loris Burke, Narrows Park, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant and John Rose, Piedmont, served as Mr. Fair's best man.

The bride was attired in a white border print jersey street-length dress, with which she wore white accessories. A corsage of white roses completed her costume. Her matron of honor wore a white dress with red accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride attended Piedmont high school and Catherman's Business school. She is employed as secretary by William M. Somerville and Estel C. Kelley, local attorneys.

The bridegroom served in the army for nine years, receiving an honorable discharge in 1942. He also served a year in the merchant marine. For the past eleven months he was employed by the Potomac Edison, resigning his position recently.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held for the bride and her bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fair are residing at 215 Emily street.

Joint Birthday Party Honors Young Visitors

Donna Jean and Kenny Robertson, Jr., were honored with a birthday party held on the lawn at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fletteman, 502 Montreal avenue, Saturday afternoon.

The children with their parents, T-5 and Mrs. Kenneth Robertson are visiting from Camp Wheeler, Ga.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations and individual favors given to the children. It was also repeated in the two birthday cakes, one having four candles in honor of Donna Jean's birthday and the other had two for Kenny's. Various kindergarten games were played and refreshments were served.

Thirteen children and fifteen adults attended.

Society To Hold Picnic

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will hold a picnic for members and their families July 24 at Constitution park. Plans were formulated at the meeting last week at the home of Mrs. James Flora, Cash Valley road. Mrs. D. L. Sherk will be in charge of the recreation.

Mrs. H. T. Humphreys presided and Miss Marie Williams and Mrs. T. O. Curtis took part in the program. Mrs. Cecil Green, Mrs. Carl Herpich and Mrs. Humphreys were assistant hostesses.

Low-Priced Utilities, Industrials, Make Modest Gains in Stock Market

By VICTOR EUBANK
 NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—Low-priced utilities and assorted industrials tacked on modest recoveries in today's stock market while most rails and aircrafts stumbled.

Timid bidding for power and light issues apparently was based on their post-war outlook. Customers were a bit more courageous also on the idea the recent price release had greatly improved the technical position of the list. Earnings, dividends and the preponderance of idle cash still served as bullish incentives.

Transfers totalled 1,380,000 shares smallest for a full session since June 12.

At highs for 1945 or longer were Electric Power & Light, Columbia Gas, International Hydro Electric and American & Foreign Power. Ahead were United Corp., American Water Works, American Telephone, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Goodrich, International Harvester, Standard Oil (N.J.), Texas Co., Chesapeake & Ohio, Pennsylvania, Johns-Manville, J. C. Penney, Montgomery Ward, Radio Corp. and U. S. Gypsum.

Losers included Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Sperry, Pan American Airways, du Pont and Eastman Kodak.

Dairy Development Project Reviewed By Committee

By GEORGE H. HANST

OAKLAND, July 2—Members of the Dairy Development committee, previously organized in 1944 for the purpose of improving the dairy industry, held a meeting for the purpose of marking up the completion of one project by the committee.

Last year sixteen registered bulls were purchased, five of which were purchased outright by farmers, the other eleven purchased and turned over to eleven farm boys to raise as a project. According to Frank Kley, chairman of the committee, all but two of the projects were completed. One bull died and the other did not develop into a breeder. The other nine bulls were purchased by the fathers of the farm boys who enrolled in the project.

Gradual improvement of the herds in this area is expected as a result of the project. John H. Carter, county agent, said there were from seventy-five to 100 registered bulls already owned by farmers of the county that were being used for improvement of numerous dairy herds.

The committee will continue its activity and Howard White was named as secretary, replacing Grover Sneed, who was transferred to the Carnation company to some other locality last year.

Prior to adjourning the committee also discussed closing of the production record project which included actual production records of dairy herds in the Oakland milk shed area for a year. Winners in the area are to be announced and prizes awarded at a dinner meeting which is being planned.

More New Shows Are Scheduled By Air Networks

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, July 2.—The post-poned new Norman Corwin drama series on CBS begins at 9 Tuesday night. So do some other summer programs.

The Corwin series was to have started June 17, which would have put it on Sunday nights. The change puts it in at the time of Inner Sanctum, off for the summer. The first broadcast, "Unity Fair," described as "featuring the common man," will include in the cast Peggy Ryan, Alfred Drake, Groucho Marx, Keenan Wynn, and June Richmond. It will come from Hollywood.

Others in the new classification: MBS 8:30 Adventures of the Falcon, a detective series with James Meighan—this program was on the former Blue in previous months. NBC 9 Victor Borge show replacing Fibber McGee and Molly for the summer, primarily a musical show.

Theater of Romance of CBS celebrating the first anniversary with its present sponsor will have John Hodiak as the lead in "Man without a Country." It's at 8:30.

Lucille Manners, who sang so long in the NBC Friday night concert after Jessica Dragonette left the program, gets back on the air via MBS at 10:30 for a guesting with Wings for Tomorrow. Eileen Farrell and Sally Moore start a series of joint song programs on CBS at 6:30, also to be heard on Fridays. These two have been singing in separate late afternoon broadcasts.

Memoriam

loving memory of my husband,
John D. Caton, who departed five days ago July 2, 1945.
Remembrance is a gold chain,
Death tries to break in vain.
To have to love and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things
but this they never will,
In memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.

Missed by
HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

HOME BUILDER
ZONOLITE
An improved material for making a plaster mix. Use Zonolite instead of sand. After once using it your plaster contractor will recommend
it. It has the following advantages:
Easier mixed, trowels easier. Lightness in weight makes it easier to apply. It is not affected by dampness. It is fire proof, a non-conductor of sound and heat, has great insulation value. Really a remarkable material.

PRICE $1.25 PER BAG
First cost slightly higher. All things considered it is lower in price and does a better job.

Heskett Proposes Resurvey of Lots For Developments

Planning Group Seeks List of Properties Owned by the City

A recommendation by Charles Z. Heskett, city solicitor, that a survey be made of city-owned lots for the purpose of laying them out in accordance with the city zoning ordinance was approved yesterday by the Municipal Planning and Zoning Commission, which announced that Ralph L. Rizer, city engineer, will be requested to prepare a list of the properties located in areas where city facilities are available.

Heskett's communication to the commission pointed out that lots taken over by the city or non-payment of taxes should be resurveyed and laid out in accordance with the zoning law and adapted for the sale and development of new homes. He stressed that areas in which city facilities are available should be utilized by redevelopment to make them more attractive for the building of new dwellings.

It is understood that whole blocks of lots within the city have been taken over as a result of non-payment of taxes and these areas especially low as logical sites for new housing developments.

The commission proposed that the city solicitor examine the law to ascertain just how far outside of the city limits planning control is authorized. If the authority extends one mile beyond the limits, the commission proposed tying those developments into the city facilities.

It was suggested that the city solicitor consult the attorney to the board of Allegheny county commissioners relative to the development of areas just outside the city with the hope of co-ordinating the area one mile beyond the limits with facilities offered by the City of Cumberland.

A report from the State Board of Postwar Reconstruction and Development indicated that Cumberland's application for funds for engineering surveys on the proposed four-lane crosstown overhead highway, the sedimentation basin at the dam and the new pipeline will be acted upon in about three weeks.

Dr. Thomas W. Koon presided at the monthly meeting of the commission in city hall.

Street Repairing Costs Estimated

The mayor and council yesterday ordered the preparation of notice ordinances for the paving of Glenmore and Fairfax streets, following cost estimates by City Engineer R. L. Rizer.

The cost of blacktop for Glenmore street was estimated at $5,023.78 with $4,042.25 as the property owners' share. The cost of concrete surfacing for Glenmore would be $8,339.10 with $7,455.93 as the property owners' share.

Blacktopping for Fairfax street would cost $2,691 with $2,565.43 as the property owners' share as contrasted with a cost of $5,051.20 for concrete surfacing with the owners' share amounting to $4,841.10.

Commissioner Hunter B. Helfrich said that he would like to see Kent avenue paved.

Some action was promised by the mayor and council in response to a petition asking that something be done about the flow of water from Hill Top drive, Montgomery avenue and Sheridan place in rain storms.

Charles F. Burke, Jr., collector, was ordered paid $200 for expenses in connection with tax delinquents and transcripts. He was also ordered paid $179.48 for excess postage in connection with water billing for April, May and June.

The council ordered $11.55 paid Sheehy's restaurant, Mechanic and Frederick streets, for overpayment of water bills.

Miss Maud Heron, 219 Arch street, was ordered paid $77 for medical expenses resulting from a fall on ice January 10.

An unsigned order for the payment of $344.44 to Arthur H. Martin, 422 Greene street, for car damages resulting from striking a broken drain pipe June 15 on Waverly terrace, was referred to Commissioner Helfrich.

Dolores Chase was named extra checker at Constitution park pool at $16 weekly.

A building permit without fee was granted Memorial hospital for $16,000 worth of construction.

Fees collected last month were: general and privilege license, $2,190; movie taxes, $887.50; weights, $90.07; fines, $447; engineer's office, $106.20; water office, $115; collector, $106,579.19 of which $37,696.10 was for water. Airport receipts last week were $107.72.

Water consumption for the week was 73,740,000 gallons, a daily average of 10,534,000. The daily average last year at the same time was 10,440,000. Lake Gordon is one foot and four inches below the crest; Lake Koon one-half inch above the crest.

Council Opposes Order For Secretarial Job

Police Commissioner James Orr yesterday withdrew an order he had introduced to the mayor and Council authorizing the civil service commission to conduct an examination for a secretary for the police commissioner's office. The council opposed.

Orr stated that the new secretary was needed to relieve Miss Mary E. Clay, the mayor's secretary, and to keep the police commissioner's office open.

Commissioner William E. McDonald questioned that a full-time secretary was needed.

Miss Wanda Hanks was employed as secretary for sixty days, the temporary period having expired several weeks ago.

Miss Hanks will replace Miss Clay for two weeks when the latter is on vacation beginning July 10, according to a motion approved by the council.

Damage Actions Over Bridge Blast Settled in Court

Three Damage Suits Filed Against the Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company by Parents of Three Boys Injured in the Explosion of the Valley Street Bridge on February 10, Have Been Settled in Circuit Court for a Total of $4,618.95.

Mrs. Wilma S. James, mother of two of the boys received the largest amount. She sought $5,000 for injuries to Eugene James, 14, who was hurled into Wills creek and was badly burned and bruised. A judgment by agreement for $3,300 was entered in court.

In another suit filed by Mrs. James, she asked $500 damages for injuries suffered by Allen James, 12, who also was hurled into the creek. This action was settled by payment of $50.

The third suit, filed by Virgil W. Milburn, father of Robert Milburn, 14, was settled on payment of $1,268.95. Damages of $2,500 had been asked. Young Milburn was hurled into the air by the blast and hung suspended with one leg caught on a section of the wrecked bridge, until he was rescued.

William M. Somerville, attorney for the parents of the three boys, filed the suits and settlements were made by Wilbur V. Wilson, counsel for the gas company.

Some of the litigation charged the gas company with negligence in failing to have its gas lines in the bridge kept in proper condition.

DROWNING VICTIM'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for William Ronald Payne, 17, of 316 Independence street, who drowned Sunday night in the swimming pool at Constitution park.

The body of the youth, son of Harry R. Payne and Mrs. Rosemary Payne, was found about 10:30 p. m. Sunday, forty-five minutes after a search was started by life guards at the pool.

Services will be held at the home with the Rev. Kenneth Harrington, pastor of Bethel Gospel tabernacle, officiating. Interment will be in Hillcrest burial park.

MRS. CHARLES DAVIDSON

Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in St. John's Lutheran church for Mrs. Sarah Isabelle Davidson, wife of Charles G. Davidson, 609 Quebec street, who died yesterday morning in Allegheny hospital after a long illness.

A daughter of the late Levi and Elizabeth Bashore Fisher, Mrs. Davidson was a native of Adams county, Pa. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, Roy Davidson, Baltimore; Howard, Charles and Paul Davidson, Cumberland; two daughters, Mrs. Samuel Manning and Mrs. George Bartik, Cumberland; three brothers, Charles Fisher, Westminster; Elder Fisher, Keymar; Howard Fisher, Portsmouth, Va.; one sister, Mrs. Emma Porter, Hanover, Pa.; fifteen grandchildren, three of whom are in the army and three in the navy, and six great-grandchildren.

The body will remain at the home. Services Thursday will be conducted by the Rev. Edward P. Heinze, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, and interment will be in Davis Memorial cemetery.

MRS. MILLER RITES

A requiem mass was held yesterday morning in St. Patrick's Catholic church for Mrs. Catherine Kelley Miller, 64, widow of William Miller, 847 Gephart drive. The Rev. Francis J. McKewen officiated. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery.

Funeral services were E. C. Landis, Michael D. Reinhardt, Harry I. Steinhilber, John Miller, George H. Hetzel and C. E. Howell.

MRS. ETTIE MCKENZIE

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. today in Stein's chapel for Mrs. Ettie S. McKenzie, 78, widow of Joseph S. McKenzie, who died Saturday at the home of the Rev. H. D. Purrier, Connelville, Pa., with whom she resided.

The services will be in charge of the Rev. H. A. Kester, pastor of Kingsley Methodist church. The body will be entombed in the mausoleum at Rose Hill cemetery.

Sheet Metal Worker Is Injured in Fall From Scaffolding

Injured in a fall from a twelve-foot scaffolding at the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant yesterday afternoon, Marvin R. Cox, 24, sheet metal worker for the Riggs-Distler Construction Company, was reported to be in a good condition in Memorial hospital last night.

Cox, who resides at the Boulevard apartments, was helping on a construction job at the Kelly plant when he tumbled the twelve feet from the scaffolding to the ground about 4 p. m.

Hospital attaches said he suffered bruise burns of the back and left shoulder and lacerations of his head and two fingers on his left hand.

Miss Genevieve Redman, 24 Petersburg, W. Va., was admitted to Memorial hospital at 4:30 p. m. yesterday for treatment of a broken arm, suffered when, hospital attaches said, she was struck by an automobile shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Petersburg.

Navy Planes To Arrive At Local Port Today

The five naval aircraft—Hell-diver, Hellcat, Avenger, Wildcat and Corsair—which will be on display at the local airport all day tomorrow, are scheduled to arrive here this afternoon.

At mid-afternoon tomorrow the planes, brought here in connection with the Seventh War Loan Drive, will give a demonstration of bomb dropping, dive bombing and other phases of aerial warfare.

Special arrangements have been made at the port for parking cars. The administration building will be open and soft drinks and sandwiches will be sold at the airport.

Kiwanians Name Boston Sherwood As Camp Director

50 Boys and Girls To Be Chosen for Project Opening July 16

Boston E. Sherwood, a member of the Allegheny high school faculty, has been named director of the Kiwanis Sunshine Camp, MacDonaid terrace, to be conducted from July 16 through August 11.

A native of Wisconsin, the new director has been an instructor in Allegheny county high schools since 1925. Sherwood was shop teacher at Barton high school from 1925 to 1930 when he was transferred to Pennsylvania avenue high school.

He joined the faculty of Port Hill high school when it was opened in 1936 and remained there until 1944 when he transferred to Allegheny high school. In 1942 he taught sheet metal work at the Naval Training school in Chicago for three months but was forced to give up this work on account of illness.

Sherwood will be assisted in handling the fifty boys and girls at camp by Mrs. Sherwood and their daughter, Mrs. Jean Rhoades; two boy leaders, Ralph Lashley, Jr., and John Turk, and two girl leaders, Miss Evelyn Lashley is one of the two girl leaders already appointed. Catherine Stevenson, Jennie Buckell and Jean Marshall, of the Lonaconing school cafeteria, will prepare the meals to be served during the camping season.

Twenty-five boys will be assigned to camp for the first two weeks while a similar number of girls will occupy the camp for the final two weeks. Miss Jeannette Bonig, executive secretary of the Associated Charities, is assisting in the selection of children for the annual camp.

Sixteen Volunteers Will Enter Navy

Sixteen naval volunteers of the Cumberland area will report to the local navy recruiting station at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow prior to leaving for Baltimore to take physical examinations for entry into the navy, according to Chief Petty Officer Walter B. Warme, in charge of the local navy recruiting station.

Darl W. Jewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd O. Jewell, 8 Port Hill avenue and a graduate of Port Hill high school in May, will be in charge of the group. Richard C. DeHart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. DeHart, 118 South Smallwood street, and Robert J. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Martin, 316 Mountain View drive, will be assigned to the naval hospital corps with ratings of hospital apprentice second class. Jewell will be sworn in as a seaman second class for combat air crew training.

Others reporting tomorrow will be Carl E. Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Welch, Port Ashby, Va., a graduate of Port Ashby high school this year; Domenick LaRossa, Manheim, W. Va., a graduate of Rowlesburg, W. Va., high school this year; Alfred J. VanHorn, nephew of Mrs. Mae Bell C. Steiding, McCoolle.

Charles M. Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Diehl, 610 Louisiana street, a graduate of Port Hill high school this year; George W. Boor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Boor, Petersburg, W. Va., a graduate of Fort Union military academy, Fort Union, Va., this year; Jack W. Piper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Piper, Spring Gap, a graduate of Oldtown high school.

Michael D. Neeson, son of Mrs. Thelma Neeson, 717 Gephart drive; Lloyd P. Linn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Linn, Cresaptown; A. Donald Meanyhan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Meanyhan, Mt. Savage; Melvin W. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. James, Lonaconing, a graduate of Central high school.

Clarence W. Ganoce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loris N. Ganoce, Kirby, Va., an employee at the Kelly-Springfield plant here; Paul W. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Wood, Mt. Lake Park, a junior at Oakland high school, and William T. Ward, Freestburg, a graduate of Beall high school this year.

Robert Leo Jones Receives Discharge

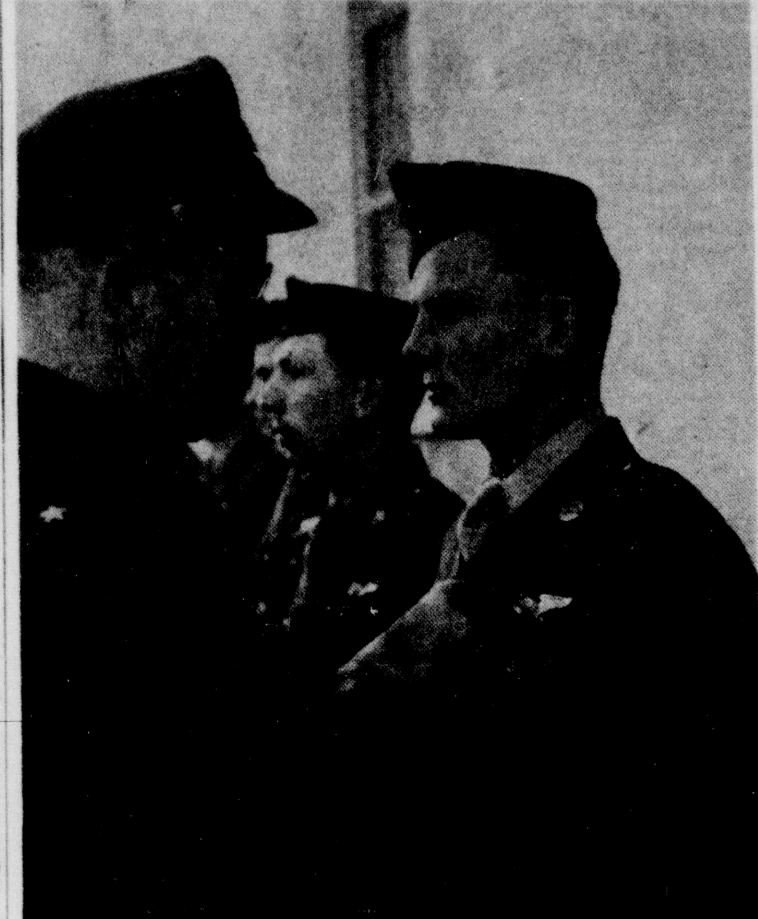

Robert Leo Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jones, Bowling Green, has received an honorable discharge from the army under the new point system with a total of 132 points. He received his discharge at Fort George G. Meade, on June 20, after practicing in the service, May 23, 1945.

Jones enlisted in the service October 8, 1940 and received his basic training at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. He was then sent to Chanute field, Ill., to study airplane mechanics, after which he was stationed at Selfridge field, Mich., until December 9, 1941 when he was transferred to Glendale, Calif.

On September 27, 1942 he landed in Ireland and the following January was sent to Africa. There his stations included Algeria, Libya and Tunisia, after which he went into Sicily and Italy.

Local Man Paroled In Juvenile Court

Arthur Yantz, Louisiana avenue, was paroled in juvenile court yesterday morning on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of two youths. Police said Yantz and two boys, both 15, were arrested about 1:30 a. m. yesterday on charges of being drunk. Yantz allegedly gave the boys several drinks of whiskey while he himself was drunk, according to police.

RECEIVES AIR MEDAL—Sgt. William J. Reed, 19 (right), a tail gunner on a B-25 medium bomber based in Italy with the Twelfth air force, is shown above as he received the Air Medal from Brig. Gen. Robert D. Knapp for "meritorious achievement in combat aerial flight." Sgt. Reed, son of Mrs. Martha M. Mullan, 507 Franklin street, has flown ten combat missions since going overseas last March 17. He is a member of the Three Hundred Twenty-first Bomb group, which has been cited twice by the War department for outstanding service in battle. A former Times-News carrier, Sgt. Reed was graduated from Allegheny high school in 1943 and worked at the Celanese plant before entering the army in October, 1943.

Plans To Aid Lawyers Returning From Service Outlined by Gunter

William A. Gunter, as chairman of the Returning Lawyers Veterans committee for Maryland, reported at the fifteenth annual meeting of the Maryland Bar Association held Friday in Baltimore, on the plan which has been put into effect and approved by the Allegheny County Bar Association.

Among the suggestions in the Allegheny plan presented by Gunter were to recommend to the court the appointment of masters in chancery, being the procedure adopted in Baltimore City and the appointment of these masters be made up from a list of the lawyers returning from the service, to be appointed in rotation.

Another feature of the Allegheny plan is for the local Bar Association to create a loan fund in order to make small loans, from time to time, to tide the boys over in their office expenses. The loan fund, which is to be created, will be secured through the members of the bar and life memberships in the local Bar Association at $100. The third suggestion is that wherever possible the local attorneys give the returning lawyers desk room in their offices; the use of their libraries and telephones pending the establishment of their own offices.

The fourth recommendation is that the referees, as in law be held in the bar library and given by lecturers to be sent from the University of Maryland Law school. Mr. Gunter pointed out that the matter is considered of prior importance by the local Bar Association because of all the counties in the State Allegheny has the largest percentage in the service. The report shows that thirty lawyers from Allegheny county are in the service, which represents forty-five per cent of the membership of the Bar. Also an average age of the lawyers is 32 years, and their average years of practice is five and one third years.

The State Bar Association voted to approve the idea of the loan fund and in all cases where the local bar association has actually established such a fund, the state bar, on the recommendation of the executive council, also make substantial contributions to the same fund.

Other members of the local committee which formulated the plan are Daniel F. McMullen and Julius Schindler. The committee has been working since last January when it was appointed by Morgan C. Harris, president of the local association.

Post Office Will Be Closed Tomorrow

No regular deliveries of mail, except special delivery letters, will be made tomorrow in observance of the Fourth of July holiday, according to James C. Shriver, postmaster.

Bronze Star Awarded To Sgt. William Gray

The Bronze star medal for "meritorious achievement" against the Japanese on Okinawa, has been awarded to Sgt. William L. Gray, son of Mrs. Maude W. Wotrif, 6 Browning street. He is serving as a flash-sound range observer in the Two Hundred Eighty-seventh Field Artillery Observation Battalion.

An overseas dispatch discloses that Sgt. Gray has been highly instrumental in recording the location of Jap artillery, subsequently resulting in their destruction. His field work is credited with playing an important part in cracking the Shuri defense line on Okinawa.

Sgt. Gray was a machinist's helper in the B. and O. shops here before entering the army. He has been overseas for the past year.

Sgt. William Dircks Arrives in States

T-Sgt. William J. Dircks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dircks, Willowbrook road, arrived Friday at the Presque Isle Army Air Field in Maine, flying the Atlantic on the famed "Snowball" route from Paris.

Sgt. Dircks, who won fame in boxing competition while serving overseas with the Twenty-ninth division, wears the Purple Heart, a Bronze Star with a cluster, three battle stars, and the American Defense Ribbon. In the ring, he fought his way to the heavyweight championship of the Twenty-ninth division.

Western Maryland Young Couple's Marriage Annulled In Circuit Court

Body of Ernest W. Rader Is Severed on Tracks near Oldtown

Ernest William Rader, 12-year-old son of Albert Rader, near Oldtown, was instantly killed about 7 p. m. yesterday when he was run over by an eastbound Western Maryland freight train one-half mile east of Sloan and about one-quarter of a mile from his home.

Dr. Linne H. Corson, deputy county medical examiner, said the boy's body was cut completely in half and that the upper part of the body was dragged a distance of about 175 feet.

Apparently, Dr. Corson said, the boy was sitting on the track when he was struck. His body was found by his brother, Donald Allen, 8, and his sister, Betty May, 14, who notified their grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Rader, with whom they and their father reside. Their mother, Mrs. Goldie Robertson Rader, is dead.

The medical examiner reported that the train crew "believed" they struck "something," brought the train to a stop and found blood and body fragments on the pilot of the locomotive.

From all appearances, the boy crossed the C. and O. canal from his home and was alone on the tracks when he was killed. Dr. Corson said the child's skull was crushed. He issued a verdict of accidental death.

Besides his father and maternal grandmother, the boy is survived by two brothers, Albert and Donald, and one sister, Betty May.

Investigating the accident, besides Dr. Corson were Sgt. Harold C. Carl, of the state police, and Sgt. Bernard F. Beaky, of the Western Maryland police.

The child's body is at the Hafer funeral home.

Company Offers To Lease Airport

William J. Graham of the Graham Aviation Corporation, Pittsburgh, yesterday offered to lease the Cumberland airport for three and a half years, with renewal rights of seven and a half years.

Under the offer, Graham proposes to expend between $50,000 and $60,000 on a building at the port as soon as WPA approval is obtained. A full start should be made by next spring, he said. The building would include office space, a lounge, shops and storage rooms.

The company, operating the Allegheny county airport, Pittsburgh, and ports at Butler, Meadville, and Johnstown, Pa., will provide insurance protection, he said.

The city would receive no revenue for three and a half years, after which time, if the company and the city could not agree on a rental figure, the buildings would be taken over by the city at cost less depreciation. The buildings are deemed to have a twenty-year life.

Fees would be subject to the approval of the mayor and council. The city would maintain the runways but would not have to hire watchmen.

A cashier's check of $100,000 was deposited with Mayor Thomas S. Post as evidence of good faith. Airport Director Charles Z. Heskett, who attended the conference, said that he will submit the Graham offer to the airport committee for suggestions, after which he will turn the matter over to the mayor and council.

Three Sportsmen's Clubs Will Be Hosts At Fall Convention

The Cumberland Outdoor Club last evening decided to mail invitations to the Cardinal Club and the Game Wardens Association requesting their assistance in entertaining the visiting delegates to the fall convention of the League for Maryland Sportsmen, Inc., to be held here October 13 and 14. Delegates will be taken on a tour of Allegheny and Garrett counties October 15.

Four committees, namely, entertainment, credentials, banquet and reservations, will be appointed for the two-day convention.

The league comprises fifty clubs in the state, including three local organizations.

Seven Births Are Reported in Hospitals

Capt. and Mrs. Tom Simon, Woodlawn, LaVale, announce the birth of a son last evening in Allegheny hospital. Capt. Simon is commanding officer of the German hospital of war camp at Green Ridge.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Boyd, Route 5, Cumberland, last evening in Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, 887 Patterson avenue, announce the birth of a son last evening in Memorial hospital.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Timbrook, Augusta, W. Va., yesterday morning in Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Russell John Hinkle, Wiley Ford, W. Va., announces the birth of a son yesterday morning in Memorial hospital. The child's father died in February.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Daniels, 619 Baker street, yesterday morning in Allegheny hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Brewer, Bowling Green, announce the birth of a daughter yesterday morning in Allegheny hospital.

17 File Claims As Veterans Open New Office Here

Mountain District Office Closes; Handled 4,109 Cases in 18 Months

A Lonaconing mother, whose son was killed in the Philippines, was the first person to file a claim as the branch office of the Maryland Veterans' Commission was opened yesterday on the second floor of the Liberty Trust building.

Seventeen persons filed claims during the first day's business, according to Thomas F. Conlon, assistant state service officer.

The first claim was registered by Mrs. Sarah Ravenscroft, of St. Mary's terrace, Lonaconing, whose son, Staff Sgt. William R. Brown, was killed in the Philippines on April 20, 1942.

The branch office of the Veterans' commission replaces the Mountain District Veterans' Association office, formerly located on the third floor of the Liberty Trust building.

The latter organization, established eighteen months ago, controlled the business last Saturday. During its existence a total of 4,109 claims were handled of which 123 were recorded last month. The office was maintained through funds contributed by veterans' organizations of the Mountain district, which comprises Garrett and Allegheny counties.

Under the new set-up, arrangements will be made to have an attaché of the local office visit Oakland, Kitzmiller, Accident and Grantsville in Garrett county and Westernport, Lonaconing, Frostburg and Mt. Savage in Allegheny county each month to take claims from persons in those communities.

The office has been established for the purpose of assisting veterans of all wars and their dependents with claims and to adjust claims for benefits under the laws of Maryland.

Conlon is completing his twenty-fifth year as service officer of the Cumberland Post No. 13, American Legion. He served as commander of the post in 1924, at which time he reorganized the Mountain district. In 1937 he was vice commander of the post and since 1939 he has been a member of the Maryland Veterans' Commission, now headed by Joseph H. Central. He is a former member of the American Legion's national rehabilitation committee.

The new office is in room 208, Liberty Trust building. Mrs. Virginia Melero is stenographer.

Miss Regina Santanilo has been placed in charge of the office of the Conlon Insurance Agency.

Sgt. Joseph Barb, Parsons, Reported Killed at Mindoro

Father of Five Small Children Loses Life on June 18

By MRS. HELEN COLLETT PARSONS, W. Va., July 2.—The sixtieth war casualty for Tucker county was reported this afternoon with a message from the War department stating that Sgt. Joseph Barb, Parsons, was killed in action at Mindoro in the Philippine island group June 18, two days before his twenty-eighth birthday.

A resident of Parsons, Sgt. Barb, son of Harold E. and Vivian Barb, was born there June 20, 1917. He was the father of five small children, the oldest of whom started to school this fall.

With Forest Service

A graduate of Parsons high school with the class of 1934, Sgt. Barb was timekeeper for the WPA in Tucker county for several years but later accepted a position with the United States Forest Service.

He subsequently resigned that post to become bookkeeper with the Armour Leather Company, Parsons, and later became bookkeeper with the Willis Motor Company, holding the latter position until he entered service December 19, 1943.

Sgt. Barb received his training as a sergeant at the army air forces training command school, Harlingen, Tex., and won his silver wings in August, 1944. He later was transferred to California and was sent to the Pacific theater about six months ago after spending a short furlough at his home.

Parsons Survive

Sgt. Barb is survived by his parents, his widow, the former Miss Lucretia Huffman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Hove Huffman, of Daily, five small children, Dorcas, Joan, Linda Lou, David Allen and Jimmy; three brothers, Harold E. Barb, Jr., Weirton; William Barb, with the army in Germany; Kenneth Barb, at home; two sisters, Margaret Ellen and Nancy, at home, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Hart.

For several years Sgt. Barb was secretary of Parsons Lodge, No. 804, Loyal Order of Moose. His father is manager of the Half Price store, Parsons.

Infant Boy Dies

Richard Knowlton Freese, five-month-old son of Lt. Comdr. C. M. and Maude Schoonover Freese, died at noon Sunday in Johns-Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, where he had been a patient since he was seven weeks old. At that time the infant underwent a major operation.

The child, born at Parsons February 20, is survived by his parents, one sister, Mary, a brother, George, both at home, and his maternal grandfather, James T. Schoonover, Parsons.

Lt. Comdr. Freese is stationed at Pearl Harbor with the navy.

Although funeral arrangements are incomplete, the services will be conducted by the Rev. R. E. Hiller, pastor of St. John's Methodist church; the Rev. Frank A. Johnson, pastor of First Methodist church, and the Rev. Harold Shaffer, pastor of First Presbyterian church. Interment will be in Parsons City cemetery.

Woman Falls from Trestle

Mrs. Mary Jackson, widow and mother of five children, suffered a fractured skull and leg, an injured shoulder and lacerations when she fell twenty-five feet from a railroad trestle near Hancock several days ago.

Mrs. Jackson, who was returning to her home on Horseback ridge, was caught on the trestle, which is several hundred feet long, by a fast freight.

She did not have time to run either way and lowered herself over the edge of the cross ties. She lost her hold and fell to the rocky creek bed below.

Mrs. Jackson is now at Kings Laughters hospital, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Robert E. King Is Ill At Allegheny Hospital

Robert E. King, 307 Mountain View drive, manager of the local office of the Maryland Unemployment Compensation Board, is ill at the Allegheny hospital. He was admitted on Sunday.

17 File Claims As Veterans Open New Office Here

Mountain District Office Closes; Handled 4,109 Cases in 18 Months

A Lonaconing mother, whose son was killed in the Philippines, was the first person to file a claim as the branch office of the Maryland Veterans' Commission was opened yesterday on the second floor of the Liberty Trust building.

Seventeen persons filed claims during the first day's business, according to Thomas F. Conlon, assistant state service officer.

The first claim was registered by Mrs. Sarah Ravenscroft, of St. Mary's terrace, Lonaconing, whose son, Staff Sgt. William R. Brown, was killed in the Philippines on April 20, 1942.

Mish Reverses Accident Board

Judge Joseph D. Mish handed down an opinion in Washington County Circuit Court Thursday reversing a decision of the state industrial accident commission and ruling that Rita Carpenter, Cumberland, is entitled to disability compensation as a result of an accident she suffered while working as a female plant operator in the Celanese Corporation of America.

The plaintiff's request for compensation was denied by the accident commission at a hearing held about a year ago, and her attorney, Harold E. Naughton, filed an appeal in circuit court against the Celanese Corporation of America, employer, and the American Motorist Insurance Company, insurer.

The hearing to determine whether or not the plaintiff suffered accidental injury was removed to Hagerstown with Judge Mish subsequently ruling in the employer's favor. The ruling was reversed by the accident commission.

E. F. Travers and John Wagman, Hagerstown, represented the defendant firms.

Kirwald Is Arrested In Connection With Shooting

Pittsburgh City Detective Walter Monagan arrested Peter Kirwald, garage mechanic, sought for the shooting of Mrs. Evaline Thomas, 30, June 16, in Pittsburgh, early yesterday morning in Cumberland. He will be returned to Pittsburgh.

The man, who is said to have set an alarm to wake himself 20 minutes to shoot Mrs. Thomas, was traced by a telephone call he made to Pittsburgh to inquire about Mrs. Thomas' condition.
